

2020 - Kingborough Bicycle Treasure Hunt

Come along and have some fun on your bike at the 2020 “Kingborough Bicycle Treasure Hunt”.

This is a free community event supported by Bicycle Network and the Kingborough council.

Have some fun on your bike exploring bush tracks with friends and family, looking for clues and working out the puzzle. It involves using a map, planning a route and riding your bike along bush tracks to collect as many clues as possible.

This family-friendly event is part of Bike Week and is held within Peter Murrell Reserve (near Kingston).

A great event for families to get out on their bikes and have a bit of fun together exploring the Peter Murrell reserve. It is suitable for anyone who can ride their bikes along bush tracks.

There will be some light refreshments after the ride and you may even win a prize!

Where - Meet at Peter Murrell Reserve car park, Huntingfield Ave (just past Mitre 10 - look for signs)

When – Sunday 8th March from 2pm (best to be there before 2pm)

This is FREE community event
